HON. JOHN W. LEFTWICH'S LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE.

BROWNSVILLE, August 10, 1868.

Hon. John W. Leftwich, Brownsville, Tenn:

Dear Sir: In accordance with a resolution passed by the Democratic Convention for the Eighth Congressional District, held at this place this day, we have the honor to announce to you that you received the unanimous vote of said Convention as a candidate for Congress of said district.

With high regard.
Your obedient servants,

MEMPHIS, TENN., August 14, 1868.

Messrs. Geo. C. Porter and others, Committee, etc.:

Gentlemen: I thank you for yours of the 10th inst., giving official notice of my nomination for Congress in this District.

While free to accord to others superior acquirements and ability, I allow none to surpass me in devotion and zeal to our noble platform of principles and the great and true men who form our ticket.

I shall esteem it the great happiness of my life if I can be instrumental in overthrowing the despotism under which our people groan; in lessening the burdens of taxation; in restoring economy in the administration of public affairs; in subordinating military to civil government; in again clothing our National Executive and Judiciary with those rightful powers torn from them by a revolutionary and usurping Congress; in bringing back the happy days of the republic, when the questions asked of the applicant for official position were, "Is he honest?" "Is he capable?" in "restoring all the States to their rights in the Union under the Constitution;" in "equalizing taxation of every species of property, according to its real value, including Government bonds and other securities;" in "adopting one currency for the Government and the people; the laborer and the office holder; the pensioner and the soldier; the producer and the land holder;" in opening once more the avenues to places of profit and honor, and giving the ballot to those of my fellow-citizens who are the victims of the odious and wicked franchise laws and test oaths of Radical misrule; in allaying all ill feeling and distrust between the white man and the black man, and convincing the latter that his true interest is bound up in the good will of the former, and that the surest way to win that good will is to aid in relieving the white man of all political disabilities. Charity for the misguided; the honest fanatic and the deluded man, whether white or black. But for those wretches who flourish most in times of greatest public trouble; who seek to acquire property and official station by inciting a war of races; who would bring armed soldiers among us to eat out our substance and uphold them in preying upon society, there can be no charity.

Such men are vampires upon the body politic; enemies of all mankind; patrons of misrule. Let it be with them as it was with the Ishmaelite whose hand was against every man, and against whom was every man's hand.

With sentiments of high respect, your obedient servant,

JNO. W. LEFTWICH.

A Double Tragedy in Texas.

We find the following in the Bastrop Advertiser:

On Wednesday morning last, two twin brothers, Neil and Richard Northcross, were killed in a half mile of the residence of W. C. Lawhon, Esq., twelve miles north of Bastrop. Mr. Lawhon, the first witness on the ground immediately after the killing, furnishes us with an account of this terrible tragedy, from which we condense a brief account:

One of the brothers killed (Richard Northcross) was married to Sallie Gentry, on the 21st of May last. They have lived together happily and agreeably since their union. For some time Mr. Gentry has contemplated moving to Tennessee, and desired that his son-in-law and daughter should accompany him. Mr. Northcross had promised to do so, but in the meantime, had conceived a dislike for Mr. Gentry, and informed his wife that he had changed his mind on the subject. Mrs. Northcross declared her intention to follow her father, through the influences of her parents. Her husband replied, if she did, the separation should be final; but subsequently by interposition of friends she concluded to remain. Mr. Gentry was packed, with loaded wagons and camped on the grounds where the killing took place, prepared to start en route to Tennessee on Thursday morning, and had in his possession the clothing of his deceased son-in-law. The Northcross Brothers visited the camp of Mr. Gentry on Wednesday morning, and the married brother stated that the object of the visit was not to seek a difficulty, but to get his wife and the clothing. During the brief interview, the difficulty originated, and upon whom the fault rests, we are not sufficiently advised to state. However, the twin brothers were killed. Mr. Gentry, father-in-law of Northcross, received a flesh wound from a pistol shot, in the back of the left shoulder, from the hand of his son-in-law. The parties engaged in the killing of the Northcross Brothers are G. W. Gentry, his son, T. M. Gentry, and nephew, George Gentry, son of Elias Gentry, and Robert Arnold, who, we are informed, proffered his services in case of a difficulty, if Gentry would defray his expenses to Tennessee. Richard and Neil Northcross were originally from Franklin county, Ala., but latterly from Tippa county, Miss., and have been residents of this county for about eighteen months; about twenty-four years of age.

Since the above was put in type, the parties charged with the killing, have been arraigned before 'Squire Beavers. As we go to press the trial is progressing.

Who is He?

"Ex-Gov. G. A. Miller, of Georgia, an original Union man, who, when the war broke out, left his fine plantation in Georgia, came North, entered the army and rose to the rank of Brigadier-General before its close, has taken the stump for Grant and Colfax."

The above paragraph, which we clip from the Utica Herald, (Radical), has been going the rounds of the Northern Radical journals, and we call attention to it now merely to say that there never was a Governor of this State of that name, nor have we ever heard of any such individual.

We have noticed for several days similar paragraphs in the Radical papers giving the names, or pretended names, of "distinguished" persons who had forsaken Democracy, and espoused the Radical cause. In every case, however, we find the distinguished individual located in a State different from that where the announcement is made. This is an old and very shabby trick, and should in every case be exposed.

Will our Democratic Northern exchanges inform their readers that ex-Gov. G. A. Miller, of Georgia, is a Radical myth—that no such man is or was ever known in this State—and that all the intelligent, honest patriots of the State are warmly for Seymour and Blair? [Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Noon Dispatches.

NEW YORK, August 20.—The trial of the colored zouaves who fired into a crowd of citizens in Washington last week commenced in Georgetown yesterday. Considerable evidence was taken. A policeman testified that he saw the occurrence, but was too much afraid of his life to interfere.

Thad. Stevens' will has been admitted to probate. He donates the bulk of his property to his nephew, Capt. Thaddeus Stevens, on condition that he totally abstains from intoxicating liquors, and in the event of his failing to make good the condition, it goes toward the erection of a house of refuge in Lancaster for homeless and indigent orphans, without regard to race or color, religion or descent.

BANGOR, ME., August 20.—Hon. Geo. H. Pendleton arrived here yesterday, and was serenaded in the evening.

MONTREAL, August 20.—The committee which has been managing the affairs of the late Hon. T. D'Arcy McGee has been met with great liberality in effecting a settlement on the part of his creditors, but the public subscriptions thus far received are not sufficient to cover his indebtedness.

PARIS, August 20.—The Corps Legislatif will reassemble in December. The remaining supplementary elections for members of the Corps have been postponed until next year.

At a review of troops at Marsailles yesterday, which attracted an immense mass of citizens, a popular demonstration was made in favor of peace. Loud cries were made for peace and against war. The crowd was orderly, and there was no interference on the part of the police.

LOUISVILLE, August 20.—The Louisville Journal's Washington special says Gen. Hancock will probably succeed Thomas in command of the Department of the Cumberland.

A Nashville special says Gen. Thomas is at Nashville consulting with Gov. Brownlow. The universal opinion is, that he means mischief. The negroes are pouring into town from Southern Kentucky, with the expectation of being enlisted in the militia.

ST. LOUIS, August 19.—The Democrats held Congressional Conventions throughout the State to-day, except in the Second District. In the Fourth District, John F. Phillips was nominated for the regular term, and Judge P. Ross for the vacancy caused by the resignation of Col. McClurg. In the Fifth District no report has been received, but all the county delegations are instructed to vote for Judge Wadill. Sixth District, Gen. James Shields was nominated. Seventh District, Hon. M. Oliver was nominated. Eighth District, John T. Williams was nominated. Ninth District, N. F. Switzler was nominated. Third District, not heard from.

ATLANTA, GA., August 19.—The Republican celebration yesterday, closed with a torch-light procession between ten and eleven o'clock. In the afternoon a drunken and unruly negro was arrested by two policemen, in front of the National Hotel. The policemen were proceeding to the guardhouse, when a mob of negroes pursued and attempted a rescue; the policemen resisted, and the negroes collected, and using clubs, they were knocked down, and the prisoner escaped. At the same time some person in the mob gave the word to "fire," and the negroes did so, wounding a policeman. The fire was returned by the policemen, and discharges followed in rapid succession. One negro was killed and two wounded, but they rallied again near the guardhouse, and again moved forward to attack the police. By this time, the whole police force and a large number of citizens were on the ground, prepared for the conflict, when the negroes said that it was their intention to protect the lawful authorities. They then rapidly dispersed. At one time serious apprehensions of a riot were entertained.

Gen. O. O. Howard, Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, left here last night for Vicksburg.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., August 19.—The Executive Committee of the Democracy of the State of Alabama met in this city to-day. Delegates from forty counties were present to confer with the committee.

Ex-Gov. Moore was made President of the meeting.

The Committee on Resolutions reported a series of resolutions indorsing the Democratic nominees and the platform, and urging the people to vote at the November election, and to take the laws as they find them; also denouncing the attempt of the Legislature to cast the electoral vote of the State.

The resolutions were adopted.

The electoral ticket will be selected to-night.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 20.—Passenger trains on the Central Pacific Railroad are now running to Brown's Station, two hundred and thirty-five miles east of Sacramento.

Idaho advices to the 14th state that Judge Shoffar, Democratic candidate for Congress, is three hundred ahead. His election is claimed by six hundred majority.

GEN. A. S. PIATT, of Ohio, has made a speech in which he announced that he had abandoned the Radical party and would vote for Seymour and Blair.

432 Broome Street, New York.

ITURGY OF THE ANCIENT AND ACcepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States. By Albert Pike, 33d, Sov. Grand Commander. 8vo. Splendidly illustrated with Chromo-lithographic plates and numerous wood engravings, Part II, 4th to 14th degree, $5 00.

☞ It would perhaps seem unnecessary after giving the above title-page to say anything further in the way of recommendation. The name of the author should of itself be a sufficient guarantee of its worth. Ill. Bro. Pike, by his learning and contributions has done as much to elevate the standard of Masonic literature and extend a knowledge of its symbolism, ethics and history as any other living man. This book, in its particular department, may justly be considered a master-piece, embracing matter not only useful to the Masonic student of every grade, but to men of science in the highest literary field of the present age. Notwithstanding this book has been preceded by several of a similar character, yet to Bro Pike alone is due the honor of first exploring this branch of Masonic literature and of opening to the admiration of the Craft its vast storehouse of knowledge and beauty. This work contains the degrees of the Ancient and Accepted Rite from the fourth to the fourteenth inclusive, is elegantly illustrated with chromo-lithograph engravings, showing all the jewels, costume, furniture, etc., belonging to each degree. No expense has been spared in getting it up, and it is without doubt the most elegant, as well as one of the most useful books, ever offered to the Fraternity.

Published and for sale by the Masonic Publishing and Manufacturing Company, 432 Broome street, New York, and Booksellers generally in the United States.

TEST OATHS, AND THE FRANCHISE LAW OF TENNESSEE.

NO. 4.

No freeman, Magna Charta said, shall be taken, or imprisoned, or dissiezed of his freehold, or of his liberties or free customs, etc., unless by the lawful judgment of his peers, or by the law of the land.

On which Lord Coke says: "Of his liberties or free customes, that is, of such franchises and freedomes and free customes as belong to them by his free birthright . . . by the law of the land, (that is, to speak it once for all), by the due course and processe of law."

By the 5th amendment to the Constitution of the United States, no man can "be deprived of life, liberty or property," without due process of law.

By the Constitution of Tennessee, no free man can be "dissiezed of his freehold, liberties or privileges, or outlawed or exiled, or in any manner destroyed, or deprived of his life, liberty or property," but by the judgment of his peers or the law of the land.

It has never been doubted, since the case of Ashby vs. White, decided in the Court of Queen's Bench, in the second year of Anne, and afterwards reversed in the House of Lords, that an action lies against a Sheriff or other officer holding an election, by a person entitled to vote, and whose vote is refused.

Three Judges—Gould, Powyss and Powell—decided against the right of the plaintiff to his action, chiefly on the ground that the House of Commons had the exclusive right to determine whether the party whose vote was refused, had the right to vote for Member of a Borough. Lord Holt maintained the plaintiff's right to his action; and the House of Lords sustained his opinion. He said: "Is this a little thing, to have the privilege of giving my vote, in the election of a person in whose power my life, estate and liberty lie, obstructed? . . . Now it is plain that the want of this privilege to vote for a Parliament-man, and sure every one that has that great rivilege has a right in it; and if so, of necessary consequence he has an action to vindicate and maintain that right." He styled it "so transcendent a right, and said that the freemen of England had too considerable an estate in this right, to have it only lodged in a body politic. 6 Modern Reports, 45. The case is also reported in 1 Salkeld, 19, where we learn that, in the House of Lords, in error, Trevor, Ch. J., and Price and sixteen Lords concurred with the three Judges of Queen's Bench; and the rest of the Judges and fifty Lords with Chief Justice Holt.

The case in the House of Lords may be found in the second volume of "The History and Proceedings of the House of Lords," published in 1742, commencing at page 74. The report of the Committee, which was adopted, said: "THE PLAINTIFF IN THIS CASE hath a privilege AND A FRANCHISE, and the defendants have disturbed him in the enjoyment thereof, in the most essential part, which is the right of voting." And again: "There is no other provision made for the plaintiff, who is highly injured in his right, but by bringing his action in the courts of law, that have power to determine of men's lives, liberties and properties. . . . If an elector be a cobbler, he is a freeman of England, and has that great privilege belonging to him, to be represented in Parliament." "Every Englishman is entitled to reparation for the injuries done to his rights and FRANCHISES, in the ordinary and common methods of justice where the juries who try, and the witnesses who give evidence, are to be upon their oaths. Magna Charta, cap. 29, is very explicit. No freeman shall be dissiezed of his freehold, or liberties, or free customs, unless by the lawful judgment of his peers, or by the law of the land.

The second resolution of the Lords, in giving judgment, declared "that the asserting that a person having a right to give his vote at an election, and being hindered so to do by the officer, who ought to take the same, is without remedy for such wrong by the ordinary course of law, is destructive of THE PROPERTY of the subject," etc.

At page 126 of the same volume will be found the "Humble Representation" of the Lords to the Queen, upon occasion of the commitment to Newgate of five Burgesses of Aylesbury, who had brought separate actions like that of Ashby, against the Sheriff. The House of Commons declared their bringing their actions to be in contempt of its jurisdiction, and in breach of its privileges: and the Lords remonstrated on the ground that "the consequences of such proceedings would prove fatal to the properties and liberties of the people of England." They also said: "The right of election is a legal interest, incident to the freehold, or founded upon custom, or the letters patents of your Majesty's royal ancestors, or upon particular acts of Parliament, and must be tried and determined like other legal interests."

The Lords said, on this representation, "The point of law was settled by the judgment of that Court, which is allowed to be the last resort, and this will continue to be the law, till it be altered by the legislative authority. . . . The point of law is judicially settled; and yet the House of Commons take upon them to punish men by imprisonment, for endeavoring to have the benefit of what is so established for law."

The highest authority in England thus settled, in 1704, one hundred and sixty-four years ago, that the right of a freeman to vote for members of Parliament was a franchise and privilege, of transcendent value, in which the elector had an interest and estate, and the denial whereof gave him a right of action, as in case of other legal interests. And so the law has ever since been settled, in America as well as England.

But Mr. J. B. Henderson, now cast out from the Radical church because he had some remnant of a conscience, and could not swear that the President was guilty of a high crime and misdemeanor for endeavoring to prevent the utter overthrow of the Constitution, said, in the case of Cummings, to the Supreme Court:

"Public offices have always been taken away from the incumbents, by the sovereign act of the people, without consulting the incumbents, without informing them, without hearing them in their defence, and yet nobody ever supposed this to be a punishment of the incumbents. It is not a property, because it deprives them of no property whatever. The public, it is true, had given them a trust, but the public had created that trust for their own purposes, and the public can resume it whenever necessity or convenience require it; and the public alone can judge of that necessity or convenience."

Scævola was a great lawyer in Rome, before the days of Cæsar, and Ulpian, Paul and Trebinian, towards the time of Justinian. Pothier, d'Agueesseau and Merlin were renowned jurisconsults in France, as fifty Judges were in England; and either of them would have stared with astonishment at a Senator and lawyer, who should have ventured to express his contempt for the intellect of the Prætor he was addressing, by an argument like that of Mr. Henderson, of which the contumely of his constituents for a righteous act, is the just and not excessive punishment.

Mr. J. B. Henderson is a Senator. The Legislature of Missouri may take his office from him, according to his theory, without consulting him, without informing him of the imputations against him, without hearing him in his defence, the charge being that he was bribed to vote for the acquittal of the President. This deprives him of no property. The public only resumes a trust, created for its own benefit, because, in its opinion, the public interest requires it. All that is true.

But what had this common-place truism to do with the case then before the Court? Is the profession of Minister of the Gospel a public office? Is the elective franchise an office that the people may take away from the citizen at pleasure? How the Bar has fallen from its high estate, when such nonsense can be gravely uttered by counsel, and respectfully listened to by the Supreme Court of a great Republic? Are not privileges and franchises property?

Listen, again, to the stuff which a Senator can talk. We hope he is ashamed of it. If not, it would be cruel to punish him for an absurd and stupid opinion. He said that the acts which the party was required to swear that he had not committed, were "not denounced by the Constitution as crimes at all," nor was any punishment whatever attached to their commission. He said:

"If one stands on his past record, however guilty he may be, this provision cannot touch him. If he is ever punished for what he has done, it must be according to some previous existing law, and not under this act. This act does not deal with the past. It looks only to the future. If it refers to the past at all, it is only for the purpose of ascertaining moral character and fitness for the discharge of high civil duties, which give credit and influence in the community, and can never be safely intrusted in the hands of base or incompetent men."

We should as soon undertake to reply to the babblings of a born idiot, as to these servile babblings of counsel. You require a man to swear that he has not been guilty of rebellion; and you tell him that the law requiring it "does not deal with the past, but looks only to the future." If the Legislature of Missouri were to enact that no man should vote or hold office in that State, who could not swear that he had not taken a bribe to acquit the President, and Mr. Henderson had done so, would he think that the act did not deal with the Past? Would he think that it referred to the Past, only for the purpose of ascertaining whether his moral character was such that he was fit to vote?

He said that the act "declared no past act of the Defendant to be an offence," and prescribed no forfeiture whatever for any such act. It disqualifies all who will not swear that they have done certain acts, alleged to be treasonable. Of course it declares these to be offences; and it "prescribes" the forfeiture of the right of voting, of the elective franchise.

It is a pity that the knaveries of the Bar have at last become respectable in the Supreme Court. There was a time, when Marshall and Stacy sat there, when such an argument would have been impatiently heard, and the lawyer who made it would have been pitied. Once, such lawyers practiced in that Court as Wirt and Pinckney and Badger and Webster, and counsel did not assume that the Judges were fools or knaves; and lawyers considered that they owed even a higher duty to the law and public than to their client, and you could not have found in the ranks of the profession one who would have prostituted it as Speed and Bingham did, in arguing that military commissions in time of peace were lawful tribunals, to set by the side of the civil courts and try women for alleged offences against the ordinary criminal law. To argue such propositions was once left to the pettifoggers and black sheep of the profession.

GENERAL ITEMS.

—On Sunday morning last, at the Catholic Cathedral, Baltimore, the Rev. Thomas A. Becker, of Pittsburg, was consecrated Bishop of Wilmington, Del., and the Rev. James Gibbons, of Baltimore, was consecrated Bishop Adrymetrum and Vicar Apostolic of North Carolina.

—Three prominent citizens of Kentucky, Hon. James B. Beck, Representative in Congress from the Ashland District, Judge Alvin Duvall and Frank Hunt, Esq., have departed for Canada. It is understood their mission is to have an interview with John C. Breckinridge with a view of inducing him, if possible, to make application to the President of the United States for a pardon, so that he can return to his native State.

—It is said that Ned O'Baldwin has declared that no man in the world can whip Mike McCoole in the prize ring. He is, himself, the acknowledged champion of the world, yet he "wants no difficulty" with the newly-married man of St. Louis.

—Mr. Boucicault announces that after his present engagement in Dublin he will withdraw from the stage.

—Mr. Trimble, brakeman on the Rutland and Washington, Vt., Railroad, told a friend last Tuesday morning that he dreamed the night before of being killed by falling from the cars; and that day he was killed.

—Not long ago a man at Austin, Texas, made some remarks derogatory to the ladies, for which Sergeant George Byrne, of the Sixth United States Cavalry, knocked him down. For this the ladies of the city have presented the Sergeant with a silver cup.

—At the recent execution of the murderers of Prince Michael of Servia, a ball rebounded from one of the posts to which the criminals were attached, killing the officer in command of the firing party.

—Milton White poisoned himself with strychnine in Fabrius, N. Y., the other day. His father had ordered him away from home on account of lazy shiftlessness, and rather than go to work the youth concluded to die.

THE New York Democratic State Convention meets at Albany on the 3d of September, to nominate candidates for State offices. Mayor Hoffman and Senator Murphy are the prominent candidates for the nomination for Governor.

The rise and fall occurred every half hour for several hours, creating considerable alarm among the inhabitants thereabouts. This incident is attributed by some to marine disturbances, causing the bottom of the sea to rise and fall, thus impelling it towards the coast.

The military and volunteers are in hot pursuit. Several children have been abandoned and found in the woods. Six women have been carried away captives. With the extensive preparations now organized against the Indians, it is thought there will be no more trouble in Kansas. The hostile tribes are Cheyennes and Arapahoes.

Gen. Harney also left yesterday for Omaha and the Indian countries, on business connected with the Indian Peace Commissioners.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, August 20.—Dispatches received from Lieut.-Gen. Sherman, dated Fort Leavenworth, state that the troubles on the Saline and Solomon rivers are acts of violence against settlers by dog soldiers and Cheyennes. The cause of trouble is supposed to have grown out of the recent fight between the Cheyennes and Pawnees; the former getting worsted, are supposed to have attacked all settlers for revenge. Sheridan had sent plenty of troops, and gone in person to the place of hostilities.

A THICK cloud of white butterflies descended recently at Port Louis (Morbihan, France), from across the Bay of Gravres. DES ARC

JOHN D. ELLIOTT, Master; CAD. J. HANKS and MAT GLASS, Clerks.

THE steamer DES ARC having been put in thorough repair, will enter the MEMPHIS AND WHITE RIVER TRADE permanently on THURSDAY, the 3d day of September, 1868, leaving Memphis every Thursday for all points on White and Little Red rivers, connecting at Devall's Bluff with trains for Little Rock. Leaves Devall's Bluff for Memphis every Monday on arrival of train.

NOTICE.—To the Merchants of Memphis—The steamer DES ARC will resume her trips in the White River Trade on Thursday, the 3d day of September, 1868, and as I am satisfied that it is the wish of both the planter and merchant that the local packets receive and transport merchandise on which there is C. O. D. charges, and in view of the fact that the refusal to transport such freight has operated very much against the trade of Memphis, the steamer DES ARC (a home packet, owned and controlled in Memphis) will, on resuming her trips, receive all C. O. D. freight, and collect free of charge.

CITY MATTERS.

MR. H. M. SULLIVAN, of Panola county, is authorized to act as agent for the APPEAL in Mississippi—receive subscriptions and advertisements and receipt for the same.
JOHN AINSLIE,
Business Manager.

THERE will be a continuance of the auction sale at Strauss & Blums' this morning at 10 o'clock. A great many goods that suit the ladies will be sold.

THE NEWS.—If you want to learn the news call on Joe Locke, at his well supplied news stand. He can furnish you papers from all quarters of the globe, that will suit any taste in literature.

OFF FOR IUKA.—A goodly number of Memphians departed for Iuka last night to attend the grand ball which comes off to-night. On Saturday evening Messrs. Wheat and Farmer are to give a concert at the Iuka Hotel.

THEATRICAL.—Miss Fanny Pierson, who gained many admirers at the New Memphis Theater last season, has been engaged by Ben DeBar for his theatre at St. Louis. Mrs. and Mr. G. W. Mitchell will also appear at DeBar's the coming season.

PAPER MILL FOR MEMPHIS.—We learn that Mr. H. S. Ward will shortly start East for the purpose of procuring the requisite machinery to start a paper mill in Memphis. This is a move in the right direction, and should be encouraged.

THE WOLFF CASE.—The evidence for the prosecution in the case of Moritz Wolff, charged with arson, was closed yesterday evening, before 'Squire Kiernan, the prisoner being remanded to jail. This morning the witnesses for the defense will give their evidence.

EMMONS & SON, No. 10 Jefferson street and 393 Main street, have received Harper's Magazine for September, New York Chimney Corner, Banner of Light, Boston Pilot, Emerald and New York Herald, Tribune, Times and World, and Cincinnati, St. Louis and Louisville papers.

OUR country friends are organizing for the campaign, and are determined to spare no efforts to carry old Shelby for Seymour and Blair by a rousing majority. Clubs are being formed in every district. On Saturday a meeting is to be held at Cuba, for the purpose of organizing a Democratic Club.

MUSICAL.—Attention is called to the advertisement of F. Katzenbach, No. 317 Main street, at whose establishment can be found one of the largest assortments of musical instruments in the South. Mr. Katzenbach is sole agent for Steinway & Sons gold medal pianos and Mason & Hamlin's cabinet organs.

POLICE COURT.—Eleven names graced the Police Court docket yesterday, fifty dollars in fines and costs being assessed. One man was fined $15 for carrying concealed weapons, and others for indulging in drunks and fights. Two colored gentlemen were held for trial before a magistrate for confiscating on a small scale.

ALMOST DROWNED.—A colored voter was almost drowned last night at the Radical pow-wow on the bluff. In order to get a good view, he had mounted the water tank, and becoming interested in the eulogy of the negro race by a scalawag orator, lost his balance and fell in the tank. He was fished out in time to save his life.

IMPUDENT ROBBERY.—On Wednesday night some rascal stole a buggy from in front of a house near the Hollyford road, about ten miles from town. He took his own (or somebody else's) horse to the house and hitched up and drove off. The late owner of the absent buggy was in town yesterday, hunting for it.

YOUNG MEN'S INDEPENDENT SEYMOUR CLUB.—There was a full attendance at the meeting of the above club at Stillman Hall last evening, Vice President Woodward occupying the chair. After the transaction of the regular business of the club, speeches were made by Hon. J. W. Leftwich, Col. J. B. Bingham, Col. C. S. Cameron, and Hon. Jno. R. Fellowes.

THE SECOND BALE.—Last evening Messrs. A. J. Roach & Co. received the second new bale of the season. It comes from the plantation of Col. Clement Davis, of Mississippi, weighs 480 pounds and classes strict middling. It will be put upon the market to-day and will bring a fancy price, being the first sale of new cotton in this market this season. We will report sale to-morrow.

OUR cotton factors are preparing for business, and consequently inserting their cards in the APPEAL. In another column will be found the card of D. H. Townsend, one of the old time cotton factors, who can be found at No. 256 Front street. Mr. Townsend is so well known and has so many friends in the country tributary to Memphis, that it is hardly necessary for us to recommend him.

A FIRST-CLASS HARDWARE HOUSE. We take pleasure in recommending to the readers of the APPEAL the house of Orgill Bros. & Co., dealers in hardware, 310 Front street. They have one of the largest stores of every description of hardware to be found in the South, importing considerable direct from Europe. They are agents for Gullett's steel brush cotton gins, which are manufactured at Aberdeen, Miss., and are highly spoken of by good judges. Parties in need of anything kept in a first-class hardware establishment should call on Orgill Bros. They will do what is right.

JAMES MONAGHAN called on us yesterday and complained of our statement in regard to the robbery of his store, and left his written account of the affair. He says he does not sleep in the store; he did not hear the robbers until they were inside; fired two shots at them; there might have been only one, or there might have been six robbers in all in the store; his wife knew one, but he knew none of them that were inside. He says he is not a coward, and can prove by two gentlemen that he wished to see Detective Selkirk.

OVER THE RIVER.

Col. Cameron Nominated for Congress in the First Arkansas District.

There was a grand barbecue at Searcy, Ark., on the 15th inst., where the Democratic Congressional Convention for the First District assembled for the purpose of nominating a candidate. Col. C. S. Cameron, formerly of this city, was nominated on the first ballot. A Congressional Executive Committee was appointed, and other measures taken for thorough organization. The Democrats of the First Arkansas District are working with proper energy, and are determined to carry their district by a decisive majority.

A meeting will be held at Jones' plantation, Crittenden county, to-morrow, a grand barbecue with speaking at Cotton Plant on the 26th, and another at Augusta on the 28th. Col. Cameron and other prominent speakers will appear at each of the above places.

THE RADS IN COUNCIL.

Meeting of the Scalawags on the Bluff.

Yesterday afternoon our attention was attracted by the sound of a big drum and fife, leading a Grant and Colfax procession. The display was very imposing—a big nigger with drawn sabre marching in front, while a sable companion carried a flag, two drummers and a fife played their best, and about twenty colored cotton-baggers (juvenile carpet-baggers who pick up anything lying around loose) brought up the rear. The grand procession was preliminary to a mass meeting of Republicans on the bluff at night, called by the "biggest scalawag of them all," B. Lewis.

About dusk, the nigger with the big sword marshaled his forces at the Smith settlement, so-called from the popularity of the General, who indulges in kissing the babies of the neighborhood, so as to be thought a big man, and endeavor to go to Congress by the votes of the dark-skinned parents. Through South Memphis the dusky warriors marched, and up through town, with drums and fife, numbering about fifty by the time they reached the bluff. On arriving, a nigger mounted a woodpile and said he would address his friends. The fellow with the big sword told him to dry up and wait for the gentlemen, or he would ram the sword down his throat. The crowd not being large enough to suit the grand marshal, he led his forces off to drum up some more negroes. He returned with a reinforcement, banged out several tunes while waiting for the grand orator. At last, a nigger shouted, "Gineral Smif," the band stopped, and the hero of Water Valley took his place on the woodpile. Dr. Newkirk, Circuit Court Clerk, whispered something to a long-legged fellow, when the latter moved that Dr. Newkirk take the chair.

The doctor grinned and introduced General Smif, who proceeded to talk. He said that he felt proud to see so many of the intelligent citizens of Memphis before him, all anxious to hear the truth, and then proceeded to eulogize the Republican party, who had done everything for the colored man, made him what he was, so intelligent as to be able to vote, and skilled in the arts and sciences; the Republican party made the negro, who would never have been born if it had not been for Smif and Lewis and their friends. The General was very eloquent. He should study grammar and go to Congress by all means.

The noble countenance of Lewis was missing, and a delegation of weeping brethren started to hunt him up. They had not returned when we left the bluff. About three hundred negroes were present, a few white men being on the outskirts—inquisitive Conservatives. The only white-faced Radicals in sight while we were present were General Smif, Dr. Newkirk and the Shanghai fellow who nominated the latter for chairman.

THE Hon. John R. Fellows, who may be styled the "Young Eagle Orator of Arkansas," is in town on a short visit. As gallant a soldier as laid down a sword at Port Hudson, he still battles for the rights of the South, and does yeoman's service. His eloquence will wake up the plains of Pennsylvania and the hills of old Maine during the next two months, both of which States he will canvass for the people's candidates, Seymour and Blair. His antagonists will find him valiant in peace as he was gallant in war; and his words of wisdom, uttered in beautiful language, will add many votes to the everwhelming majority which the Conservatives will roll up in November.

IN FAVOR OF THE NICHOLSON.—Some persons who have to pay directly for the Nicholson pavement may object to it, but those who own or can hire a fine horse and buggy appear to appreciate the beautiful drive offered by the smooth pavement. Last evening there was a full turnout of dashing teams, driven by young gentlemen, accompanied by lovely maidens, who were all the world to them, as well as older gents, taking mama and the babies for an evening drive. They appeared to appreciate the wisdom of the City Fathers in providing the Nicholson pavement for them.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS' COURT.—The Board of County Commissioners did but little business yesterday. Several appropriations for small amounts were made, including ten dollars for an engraving of President Lincoln, to be hung in the Commissioners' office. E. W. Caldwell filed his bond as a Justice of the Peace, P. M. Winters and W. B. Williamson being his sureties. The County Court Clerk was ordered to enter of record the names of no jurors, unless regularly certified to him by the clerks of courts where the services have been rendered, in strict compliance with law. The order is no doubt a joke on Judge Waldran.

CONCERT AT SPRINGDALE STATION. The ladies will give a concert at Springdale Station, four miles from the city, on the Memphis and Ohio Railroad, to aid in building a Methodist Church edifice, this evening at eight o'clock. A special train will leave the depot of the Memphis and Ohio Railroad at 7½ o'clock p.m., and return after the concert. Fare for the round trip, twenty-five cents. Tickets for the concert, one dollar; may be had at Cleaves' & Co.'s book store, Katzenbach's music store, Ward's seed store, and Johnston's drug store.

RALLY, RALLY.—The members of the Bluff City Democratic Club are requested to meet at their hall, corner of Hernando and Beal streets, this evening at 8 o'clock. The Hon. Jno. W. Leftwich and others are expected to address the meeting. The members are requested and expected to attend, as business of importance will be transacted. By order of the President.

THE regular weekly meeting of the Ninth Ward and 15th Civil District Democratic Club will be held this evening at their wigwam at 8 o'clock. Addresses will be delivered by prominent speakers of the party.

LaGRANGE.

The Great Democratic Mass-Meeting and Barbecue.

All Fayette Turn Out En Masse

The pleasant little village of LaGrange, on the Memphis and Charleston road, presented a most lovely and gala appearance yesterday. Its streets from an early hour in the day were filled with vehicles of all descriptions and characters, loaded down with people and eatables and pedestrians of every age, color and sex. About twenty-five hundred persons were assembled from the neighboring country, and from the towns and stations on the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, to attend the great barbecue and mass meeting which had been advertised to take place yesterday.

The grounds where the preparations for the barbecue and speaking had been made, were about a quarter of a mile from the station on the north of the railroad, the premises of the Female Academy. Seats had been prepared for about seven hundred persons under the trees to the right of the house, where a stand was also erected.

The meeting was called to order by J. P. Pryor, Esq., about half-past ten o'clock, who, in behalf of the Seymour and Blair Club of LaGrange and the citizens of the Thirteenth Civil District, nominated Dr. Henry Biggs, of Fayette, as permanent chairman. Dr. Biggs was called to preside almost unanimously.

The following gentlemen were nominated as Vice-Presidents: Maj. Chas. Michie, Capt. Jno. W. Jones, Capt. W. A. Leech, Chas. McNamee, Esq., Maj. J. Mercer Wright, Calvin Chears, Jas. Osborne, Geo. P. Shelton, F. L. Pledge, Maj. Ed. Winfield, Thos. W. Rives, L. H. Milliken, Robt. Shepherd, James Rosser, C. B. Jones, Esq., Dr. W. E. Franklin, Maj. Ed Winston and Louis Gronauer.

The following gentlemen were also appointed Secretaries: J. P. Pryor, T. J. Shelton, Wm. Frank, Wm. F. McNamara, T. B. Yancey and D. Schloss.

The President and Vice Presidents were called to the stand, where seats were prepared for them and the orators of the day—Gen. J. L. T. Sneed, Gen. W. G. Reeves (Attorney General for 15th Judicial Circuit, an appointee of Brownlow, and who has recently deserted the Radical cause and come over to the Democratic side), Col. Kinloch Falconer, Lieut.-Gov. of Mississippi elect), the Hon. John W. Leftwich, Gen. Albert Pike, Orville Yerger, Esq., Col. F. A. Tyler and John F. Harris.

Col. John P. Pryor then read the following set of resolutions, which were put to the vote and carried unanimously:

Resolved, That we, the citizens of Fayette county, Tennessee, and of civil district No. 13, together with a great host of invited guests from other parts of the country, in mass meeting assembled, at the town of LaGrange, do hereby most heartily indorse the action of the National Democratic Convention at New York, on the 4th day of July, 1868, and hail its auspicious results as the dawn of a better day for the republic—a forerunner of the speedy redemption of the South from military despotism and Radical oppression.

Resolved, That in the "platform" of principles proclaimed by that convention, we welcome a New Declaration of Independence, no whit less important in view of the desolation brought upon us by Radical tyranny, than that which our forefathers proclaimed at Philadelphia on the 4th day of July, 1776.

Resolved, That the high and stainless characters of the Democratic candidates for President and Vice-President, Horatio Seymour and Francis Preston Blair, as patriots and statesmen, give us every assurance that our second Declaration of Independence will be as faithfully maintained and carried out by them as the first was by George Washington and his illustrious Revolutionary compatriots and successors.

Resolved, That our brethren, the great masses of the North, are as deeply interested as we are in the overthrow of the infamous Radical tyranny which, while it oppresses us, threatens them, and which will also just as surely subjugate them for five years, if not forever, as they shall permit the election of the Radical candidates in November.

Resolved, That we descry, with emotions of unspeakable joy and satisfaction, innumerable and unerring signs of a mighty waking up of the people, both North and South, black as well as white, to the threatened dangers of the hour; and we hail these signs as the sure precursors of Democratic victory—victory for Seymour and Blair—victory for the Union, the Constitution, and the enforcement of the laws.

Resolved, That the recent movement by both the Republican and Conservative masses of Middle Tennessee, to extend the elective franchise to all white citizens of the State, (which, however, as might have been expected, was so promptly opposed and defeated by the Lower House of the Legislature and by the Radical State Convention), meets with our hearty approval, and, in our judgment, is the best, surest, and only practical mode of restoring peace, prosperity and perfect tranquility to the State.

Resolved, That the Hon. John M. Lea, of Nashville, who inaugurated that movement, deserves well of his country, and we hereby tender to him our heartfelt thanks.

Resolved, That we cordially indorse and ratify the action of the recent Democratic Congressional Convention, at Brownsville, both in its nominations and resolutions—the nomination of the Hon. John W. Leftwich, for Congress, and Col. W. W. Vaughn, for elector; and in an especial manner do we indorse the following resolution offered by Colonel M. G. Gallaway, of the Avalanche, and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That if the freedmen of this State unite with the Democracy, and by their votes secure the enfranchisement of the white men that are now disfranchised, that common justice and common gratitude demand that we should not disturb them in any of the rights they may now possess.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to the foregoing resolution in good faith, and denounce as an infamous calumny every assertion and declaration of our political opponents to the contrary. They well know that we could not if we would, and would not if we could, demand the colored man to slavery; but truth and justice have never formed any part of their policy or practice, any more than has an observance of their solemn oaths to support the Constitution of the United States on the part of their leaders in Congress.

Resolved, That the Radical party is constantly working, both directly and indirectly, openly and insidiously, not alone to enslave the white people of the South, but also to re-enslave the race so recently emancipated by the chances of war; for, both races will be bound to live under the same laws, and although the colored race may be in the ascendant now, the whites cannot be disfranchised forever, and, when their enfranchisement does come, they will at once be in a majority in every State in the Union, save one or two. Look at the subject in any light they may, the freedmen must see that it is their true policy to make friends of the whites, and, on all political questions, to act with those who are the owners of nearly all the property, and pay nearly all the taxes of the South.

Resolved, That it is alike the true policy and the settled inclination and determination of the supporters of Seymour and Blair in Tennessee, that there should be perfect peace throughout the entire State from now until the day of election, and forever, if it be possible to preserve it without dishonor.

Resolved, That it is our unalterable determination to use all honorable means to preserve peace and harmony throughout our State; to suppress all acts or attempts at violence or oppression from whatsoever quarter they may emanate; that, whilst we intend to use every effort to elect Seymour and Blair, we are utterly opposed to all coercive or oppressive measures.

Resolved, That we will, with our usual forbearance and long suffering, oppose any and everything that may have a tendency to provoke collision or difficulty between the two parties and between the two races—trusting with implicit confidence for our deliverance to the ballot-box in November, through which alone we will fight the battle and win the victory.

The President then introduced the Hon. John W. Leftwick, who made a most eloquent and powerful campaign speech, which was substantially the same as the stirring appeal addressed to the gathering at Wythe Station a few days since.

General John L. T. Sneed, of Somerville, was then introduced, and spoke with most happy effect. He said that he did not come there to speak, but he felt inspired so to do by the scenes with which he was surrounded; for I stand, said he, almost upon my native heath. Pointing to a cottage embowered in trees, in full sight of the grounds, he said: "from yonder, a patriotic boy of fifteen, I tried to run away to join that glorious old hero, Sam Houston, in the struggle for independence." He briefly sketched the condition of affairs at present, and the temper and tone of the Southern people. They are, I believe, he said, all like myself. Though once I followed the flag of the lost cause, I never lost altogether my love and reverence for the glorious old flag, with its historic stars and stripes. Adverting to the standing army now kept over the South, a standing menace and an insult, he said, "The war is long since at an end; the rebellion is over; there is no resistance, armed or otherwise, to the United States; for what purpose, then, is this army of 50,000 men kept over us?"

The General, like Major Vaughn, the candidate for Elector, has a most happy faculty of telling an anecdote, and with this potent weapon of the stump, he made some exquisite hits. One we noticed, especially, as fitting the case exactly. It is time, he said, that we began to pray for the country—for the Radical party are like a certain old deacon that I once heard of. The beautiful hymn commencing, "I love to steal a while away," was given out one Sunday. The deacon attempted to raise the tune, but did not strike it exactly right, and after a half dozen ineffectual attempts, could only ejaculate in a doleful tone, "I love to steal, I love to steal, I love to steal." "Brethren," said the parson, "in view of the infirmities of our brother, let us all pray!" Let us pray for our country, for the continual burthen of this Radical song is, 'I love to steal;' and the country is being plundered by each and every one of them. The General's speech was received most enthusiastically, and he sat down amid a storm of applause.

After music from Wardlow's band, Col. Pryor introduced the colored orator, Jno. F. Harris, who followed with a scorcher of a speech. He has been, as he said, a faithful servant to the Radical party, and had been high in their councils, so he knew them thoroughly and intimately, and it was most refreshing to listen to the awful excoriation which he gave of the leaders of that party. It was not confined to either wing of the party, but he poured hot pitch impartially upon Beaumont, the great Ku klux catcher, and W. J. Smith, the martyr of Water Valley—he of the pulled snout, who so pathetically bewails his persecution in the evening Radical paper. His speech was most excellently received, not only by the colored people, to whom it was mostly addressed, but by the whole assemblage. He reviewed the case of the "sweet-scented Tom Hamilton," and announced himself as a candidate for Congress in opposition to him. "And I am going to beat him, too," said he, "or if I don't, I will have the satisfaction of getting all the decent votes; for no decent negro or white man would vote for that sugar-stealing, perjured, cowardly scoundrel. He never was in the Confederate army—that's what he swore to in that oath he took, and took twice. Why, where did he get his title of Colonel? He was a Lieutenant Colonel and Commissary in the Confederate army, and there is where he did such tall stealing." He next paid his compliments to D. A. Nunn, and used him up in the most approved style.

After Harris concluded, the chair announced that dinner was ready. A procession was formed, the music in front, the speaker and ladies followed. The dinner was set on long tables on the adjoining grounds, belonging to Mr. Kennedy. On the one side of the front walk were the tables for the white people, and equally as good and bountiful preparations were made for the colored people on the opposite side.

The barbecue was magnificent and everything was in the greatest abundance, and was enjoyed by all with a gusto which we have seldom seen equalled. During the dinner Wardlow's band, stationed at Mr. Kennedy's residence discoursed sweet music and conferred additional zest to the meal.

After dinner speaking was resumed, Orville Yerger, Esq., delivering an excellent address. He was followed by Attorney General Reeves, who was speaking when we left the ground.

THE WALDRAN INJUNCTION.

Interesting Decision of Chancellor Smith.

CHANCERY COURT—Wm. M. Smith, Chancellor.—Yesterday, in chambers, Chancellor Smith rendered the following interesting decision in the injunction case of Burditt et al. vs. Waldran:

The State on the relation—Burditt vs. Geo. W. Waldran:

After much reflection and deliberation I conceive it to be my duty to overrule the motion for an injunction in this case. The following reasons have influenced my actions:

While I think that three years' residence is necessary to render a person eligible to the office of Judge of the Municipal Court, still the question seems to be one not entirely free from doubt; and the argument that a preliminary injunction should not issue, when a doubtful question of law is involved, is certainly entitled to weight.

I may here remark that it is clearly enough established that Judge Waldran had not been three years a resident of the State before the appointment; but even if there were no doubt on the legal question, (and I must say that there is very little in my mind), still it is not shown beyond doubt that the defendant has exercised the duties of the office corruptly.

I must confess that this record exhibits a deplorable state of affairs. Its reading has grieved me greatly. To say the least of it, and I feel it my duty to say this much, it exhibits a want of judicial dignity and propriety which is truly alarming. It is difficult to conceive of any reasonable explanation of many things set forth in the record. It may be possible, however, that there was no corruption. Too great sympathy for the accused, or ignorance of our laws and practice, may possibly account for these things. I desire to say no more than that the guilt of the defendant is not established so clearly as to authorize me to make an order, the effect of which may be, and in all probability, will be to close the Municipal Court for six or eight months. I hardly think the Governor would have the power to make an appointment until the office shall be declared vacant by final decree.

I confess to great embarrassment in this case. I have earnestly endeavored to discharge faithfully a very delicate duty. I have acted in great doubt, and the very fact of the doubt I conceive is a reason why the injunction should not issue.

I have also been influenced by another consideration. The Legislature has certainly the power of removal, and that without an impeachment. A Judge or Attorney-General may be removed from office by a concurrent vote of both Houses, two-thirds of each House voting in the affirmative.—Constitution, Art. 6, Sec. 6.

The Legislature is now in special session, and soon to be in regular session. Here there is a remedy for the danger to the public by a continuance in office of this incumbent, which dangers were so eloquently spoken of by the counsel for the relator. If the danger is so great, let the application for removal be made to that department of the Government whose power is unquestioned, and whose action is final, without waiting the slow process of a lawsuit.

THE COURTS.

MUNICIPAL COURT—Geo. W. Waldran, Judge.—On yesterday in the case of the State vs. Burditt an argument was heard on the plea of the defendant and the demurrer to the same by the State. A decision will be rendered this morning. The list of cases set for trial on yesterday was disposed of as follows: In the case of the State vs. Chas. Swears, indictment for gaming, the motion to quash was overruled and a trial by the Court as of jury had, resulting in an acquittal of the defendant. In the case of the State vs. E. Jones, indictment for carrying concealed weapons—plea of guilty entered; defendant fined ten dollars.

The cases set for trial to-day are:
The State vs Burditt.
The State vs Beaumont.

CRIMINAL COURT—Wm. Hunter, Judge.—In the case of the State vs J. L. Covey and E. M. Morrison, warrant for cow stealing, coming up on habeas corpus, the defendants were admitted to bail in the sum of $2000 each. In the case of the State vs. Samuel Moyer, indictment for perjury, on motion to quash, overruled. In the case of Frank Saltamaichal and Louis Lazzaretto vs. the Metropolitan Police, on application for discharge from custody, the defendants were arrested by the Metropolitan Police for failing to take out license, etc. An injunction was granted enjoining the Commissioners of Police from interfering with the defendants above named. The question came up before the Criminal Court on habeas corpus, praying for the discharge of the defendants from custody. The defendants were discharged. The habeas corpus docket will be taken up to-day.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL,
MEMPHIS, August 20, 1868.

Business was moderately active to-day in a general way. Even the orders brought by one local packet makes a sensible change in the appearance of trade upon Front and other streets, and knowing this fact, it surprises us no little that our merchants don't have packets running in every direction in short trades. St. Louis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Evansville, Paducah, Cairo and every town we can name have short local trades which are sustaining, and which bring to those cities an immense

COTTON GINS.

COTTON GINS! COTTON GINS

E. CARVER CO.'S

Improved Gins!

THE great number of these celebrated Gin Stands in use throughout this whole country, are actual working witnesses of their acknowledged superiority. No neighborhood is without some of these splendid machines, and we make reference to each and every planter now using them as to their superior advantages over all others.

Those needing Gins will consult their best interests when they bear in mind that the "E. CARVER CO.'S IMPROVED GINS" can be had with any desired number of Saws, either right or left hand motion, by calling on or sending their orders to

ALLISON BROTHERS,

Sole Agents, 270 Front st., Memphis.

Commission Merchants desiring to make purchases of Gin Stands for their customers, will find it to their advantage to call upon us. jy14 2m ALLISON BROTHERS.

Pratt's Southern Made Cotton Gin

THIS GIN is regarded by planters who have used it, as the best for sample, picking the seed clean and light draught. Planters cultivating bottom lands are requested to examine the Eureka Gin at Farrington & Howell's, 268 Front street. It will pay for itself in ginning fifty bales. A. N. Gunnison, manufacturer of the Steel Comb Gin before the war but now a planter, gives the following certificate:

"MEMPHIS, TENN., January 31, 1868.

"I take pleasure in recommending to planters cultivating Cotton on bottom lands of the Mississippi, Arkansas, White and St. Francis rivers, the Eureka Gin, made by Daniel Pratt, of Alabama. This Gin separates the hulls, bolls, etc., from the Seed Cotton, makes a good sample, and is superior to any other Gin for bottom lands. I have used one myself on a farm in Washington county, Miss., and it operates well and gives entire satisfaction in every respect. A. N. GUNNISON."

Orders for Gins, from 40 to 80 Saws and Gum Belting, at Factory Prices, addressed to the care of FARRINGTON & HOWELL, 268 Front street, Memphis, promptly filled. Presses and Gearing put up, and Gins repaired by a skillful Ginwright. G. W. TRUEHEART.

EAGLE COTTON GINS.

WE are the Sole Agents for the sale of these unrivalled Gin Stands. For beauty of STAPLE, LIGHTNESS OF DRAFT, AND QUANTITY OF LINT COTTON turned out per day, they are unsurpassed. Reference can be safely made to every planter who has given them a fair trial. Where mule power is used, they make a saving of from one-quarter to one-third the draft OVER ANY OTHER GIN. We are also agents for WYLIE'S GRIST MILLS, and WHEELER, CLEMSON & CO.'S CIRCULAR SAWS.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF LEVEE COMMISSIONERS FOR THE COUNTIES OF BOLIVAR, WASHINGTON AND ISSAQUENA, GREENVILLE, MISS., August 5, 1868.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received until Saturday, the 29th day of August, for the construction of the following Levees.

IN BOLIVAR COUNTY.

Kirk's Levee, about 40,000 cubic yards.
Pride's Point Levee, about 40,000 cubic yards.
From Vicks to Vermillion, about 180,000 cubic yards.
Lake Bolivar Levee, 180,000 cubic yards.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.

Levee from Tarpley's to Mrs. Campbell's, about 150,000 cubic yards
Greenville Levee, about 20,000 cubic yards.
Kershaw's Levee, about 20,000 cubic yards.

ISSAQUENA COUNTY.

Camack's Levee, about 350,000 cubic yards.
Christmas Levee, about 150,000 cubic yards.

Separate proposals may be made for each of these Levees, or for the whole number in the District. Propositions must state the price per cubic yard for which the work will be constructed.

For the information of capitalists, I would state that the whole amount of indebtedness of the Board is about $138,000, and that the tax on the present cotton crop will more than discharge every form of obligation.

Any information in regard to the Levees, or matters pertaining to their construction, can be obtained by application at the office.

BUCKEYE SALVE

—FOR THE—

CURE OF EVERY FORM

—OF—

HEMORRHOIDS OR PILES

WHETHER OF LONG STANDING OR RECENT origin, internal or external, whether attended with Prolapsus, Hemorrhage or obstruction, and all by

External Application,

No internal adjuvants being required in any case, only to regulate the bowels, if constipated, or in Diarrhea and Dysentery.

The PILES, while astonishingly prevalent in their various forms amongst all classes of both sexes, are, at the same time, the most distressing, frequently dangerous, and hitherto most difficult of cure.

Persons who suffer any length of time with the Piles generally try everything they can learn of purporting to cure the disease, yet realise no permanent advantage therefrom. They have been told professionally, perhaps, there was "no permanent cure for Piles," and consequently have despaired of any future cessation from pain and suffering.

To all such a SPECIFIC is offered for their relief. The

BUCKEYE SALVE

Is a strictly scientific combination of well known remedial agents, and the proprietors have no hesitation in saying the BUCKEYE SALVE is the

ONLY INFALLIBLE SPECIFIC

Ever discovered for that disease, and which cures by outward application only, and that in time to come, as in the past, it will stand the test of trial without a failure, to perform all the proprietors claim for it, if the directions are attended to.

A large number of gentlemen throughout the country of high character and influence have voluntarily attested to the efficacy in their own cases, not from hearsay, and whose certificates may be seen by reference to the publications.

The proprietors will forward to any address one bottle, postpaid, on receipt of the retail price, $1 00 per bottle.

A Liberal Discount to Druggists and Dealers in Medicine.

This Salve will keep in any climate for years

Our Latest Improved

NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy, during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre berpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep6 dawly
